EXTENSION EDUCATOR
BEEF SYSTEMS (SAUNDERS COUNTY) - UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

HIRING

Are you passionate about addressing critical issues facing the beef industry? Can you be a strong regional expert and develop focused, comprehensive learning programs focused on Integrated Crop and Beef Production Systems? This role will focus on integrating contemporary nutrition/reproduction management, beef herd improvement, and technologies that will lead to development of new profit centers and expanding Nebraska’s cow herd.

Nebraska Extension is an organization that values individuals who excel, adapt easily, exhibit passion for helping others, and are excellent communicators. As a member of the Nebraska Extension team you will collaborate with research and extension faculty who are leaders in their field. You will work with high performing teams to create and deliver world class, innovative learning experiences that empower Nebraskans to improve their lives around critical issues.

We have an excellent opportunity for a full-time faculty position located near Mead, Nebraska at the Eastern Nebraska Research and Extension Center that will serve southeast Nebraska. We want individuals who are self-directed and able to work in a flexible environment.

Required Qualifications:
- Master’s degree with one degree in animal science in beef nutrition or reproductive physiology or closely related field required. Master’s degree must be completed by start date.
- Successful experience teaching in a formal or non-formal setting.
- Demonstrated ability to communicate (i.e. publications, presentations, web and social media).
- Minimum of 2 years experience with Integrated Crop and Beef Production Systems.

Review of applications will begin on 03/08/2016. Position will remain open until a suitable candidate is found or search is closed. For a detailed job description, additional qualifications and how to apply, go to http://employment.unl.edu and search for requisition F_160025.
