Animal Science

4-H and FFA programs have "Learning By Doing" philosophies. With this in mind all 4-H and FFA members are encouraged to learn by doing their own project work throughout the year. The York County Fair management also recognizes that these are family affairs and at times youth will need the assistance of their parents and program officials. The Fair Management hopes that each family will recognize the times that assistance is needed and the times that the member needs to learn on his or her own. Therefore 4-H and FFA members are encouraged to be involved in all aspects of their livestock project from feeding to grooming and showing.

All entries must be pre-entered on an Animal Entry Form at the York County Extension Office by the first Friday of July. Breeding beef, feeder calves, Sheep, Goats, Dairy Cattle, Dairy Goats, and Rabbits must have identification submitted to the Extension Office by June 15. All exhibitors showing must have completed Quality Assurance Certification through Nebraska Extension by June 15.

All livestock exhibitors must clean out their stalls/pens and move the bedding to the dump area. Herdsmanship premiums will not be paid until this requirement has been met.

Livestock classes may be combined based on the number of entries or class size. All breeds will be shown by breed divisions, must have minimum of three to make own class.

Carefully read all rules as well as Show Ring Ethics at the front of the book.

Showmanship

Showmanship contests will be provided based on 4-H age of exhibitor for classes and shown during their respective shows. All 4-H and FFA members showing an animal may enter showmanship. Each competitor must show his own animal. An animal may be shown only once in showmanship.

Pointers which the judge will consider are the member's skill in handling the animal, proper grooming and training of the animal. Individual excellence of the animal will not count. Members will also be rated on appropriate dress including 4-H / FFA emblem. See Rule 21 for required dress code.

Clover Kids

See Clover Kid section for show rules and guidelines.

Round Robin Showmanship Contest

Small & Large Animal

The Small Animal Round Robin Showmanship contest will be held on Saturday of fair at 1:30 p.m. and the Large Animal Round Robin Showmanship contest will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Sunday of fair. Those eligible to participate in the Round Robin Contests are the Senior Division Champion and Intermediate Division Champion from the following areas: Small Animal - cat, dog, poultry and rabbit; and Large Animal - beef, dairy cattle, goats (meat/dairy), horse, sheep and swine. If the champion showman in an area declines competing, then the reserve champion from that area will be invited to compete. If the reserve champion declines the next highest placing showmanship exhibitor in that area will be invited and on down the class line for purple and blue ribbon awards until competition spots are filled.

Dress code for Round Robin Showmanship competitors is that dress which is appropriate for showing large animal livestock in a youth livestock program, with a minimum attire of blue jeans, hard soled footwear, plus a 4-H/FFA Logo t-shirt approved for the York County Fair or a white shirt with a 4-H/FFA logo attached.

The Round Robin Showmanship judges may or may not give oral or written questions concerning the livestock specie (s) being shown. Responses by exhibitors to questions may be used as a portion of the scoring.

Contestants will draw at random for animals to be used in the Round Robin Showmanship contest.

Showmanship contest references include: Nebraska 4-H Horse Show and Judging Guide; Uniform Scorecard for Judging Dairy Fitting and Showmanship Contests; Guide for Evaluating Livestock Showmanship Contests; Cat and Dog Showmanship Score Sheets; and other guides available at the Extension Office.

In the attempt to provide competition in all areas of the Round Robin Showmanship contest; in the case a champion showman qualifies in more than one specie, the first choice of the multiple qualified show person must be in an area where that choice will leave a contestant in all specie areas. The non-selected specie area must have a reserve champion showman eligible to compete in the Round Robin competition.

Elite Showmanship

Large Animal Round Robin Senior Champion will represent York County in the Elite Showman competition at the Nebraska State Fair. If the champion declines, it goes to the reserve champion, etc.

Rally

Rally obedience is a dog sport based on obedience. It was originally from the obedience practice of "doodling" - doing a variety of interesting warm up and freestyle exercises. Many of the Rally exercises are the same as, or have the same parts (elements) of traditional obedience. Rally Obedience is a dog performance class that uses directional signs that are numbered to indicate the course the handler to follow during the performance. The team of dog and handler heel from sign to sign, and perform the exercises indicated by the numbered sign at each location. At the start sign, the judge gives permission to start the course and then the dog and handler go through the course. The judge will say "Are you ready?" followed by "Forward." No other directives are given. The course consists of signs that instruct the team what to do. Unlike traditional obedience, handlers are allowed to encourage their dogs during the course. There are 4 classes and the number of stations/signs is noted below (start and finish signs are not included in the sign count and are automatically used). Signs may be duplicated and used more than one time to create the course.

Rally signs can be referenced at www.AKC.org. Signs 1-42 will be used at fair.

J405001 - Beginning Rally dog is on leash and there are 5 to 10 stations.
