

Sioux County Impact At-A-Glance

Brought to you by Nebraska Extension

Sioux.unl.edu

The Sioux County 4-H Shooting Sports program is growing. Sioux County hosted its first shooting sports competition as part of the Panhandle Best series in 2022.

The Sioux County 4-H Shooting Sports program has been growing steadily over the past several years. Nearly one-third of Sioux County 4-H members are involved with the 4-H Shooting Sports program. The youth practice for competition events under the supervision of Sioux County 4-H Shooting Sports leader Randy Ellis and many volunteer parents. This year the Sioux County Shooters club was ready to host a competition shoot as part of the Panhandle Best series. The competition hosted 57 youth from around the panhandle and ran smoothly. Sioux County 4-H members have been placing well in area competitions.

Programs At-A-Glance

- The Sioux County Robotics Team won their second regional Core Value award. Now there are 16 youths engaged in the Junior Robotics program with their sights on First Lego League competition.
- Sioux County 4-H hosted 21 different workshops reaching 123 youths. Leather, Maker Space, and Biodegradable Plastic workshops were the most popular. STEAM principles were featured.

100%

of 3rd and 4th graders said they learned something new during the embryology project.

31%

of Sioux County 4-H members are involved in 4-H Shooting Sports.

FIRST

Sioux County hosted its first shooting sports competition this year.