- Check schedule for day and hours the building will be opened for assembly of booths.

GUIDELINES

- Booth space for 4-H educational exhibits is reserved for displaying a specific idea in a project or activity. Topics for consideration include: Citizenship - Careers - Health - Energy - International - Cultural Understanding - Leadership - Recruitment and Community Involvement and areas not shown in exhibits.
- The club exhibit is an exhibit that can be displayed outside on the fairgrounds or in a booth. Examples for outside exhibits might include: decorated hay bales, decorated and planted flower barrels, decorated trash barrels, etc.
- Make sure outside exhibits are weather proof. They also need a weatherproof sign indicating club name.
- Booths need to be pre-entered by the June 14th deadline to ensure adequate number of booth spaces.
