DIVISION 399 - FAVORITE FOODS REVUE

PREMIUMS: Purple-$5.50, Blue-$4.50, Red-$4.00, White-$3.00

- Participants do not need to be enrolled in a foods project. This contest allows members to prepare their favorite recipe and present it for a special occasion. Each contestant will be interviewed by the judge for about five minutes. Questions will be asked about the favorite food, menu, centerpiece, and place setting.
- Plan Theme, Menu, & Recipe - Select a theme for your Favorite Foods Revue table setting. (Example: 4th of July picnic, 16th birthday party, Western, Strawberries, Pansies, etc.) Plan an appropriate menu for your theme. Print or type the menu, example on page 7 of Favorite Foods Revue booklet. When planning the menu, remember to include all of the foods from the Food Guide Pyramid and also include variety in color, shape, and texture.
- From your menu, select and prepare a favorite food. On a 4"x 6" recipe card, print or type recipe you will be preparing. The food may be displayed as the whole product or as one serving. (The judge may ask to taste the food.)
- Table Setting - Card table must be provided by the participant. Plan a table setting for the theme that you have chosen for 1 person. This should include table covering (cloth, placemats, table runner), napkin, dishes, silverware, centerpiece and the food you have chosen to prepare from your menu. You do not need to bring serving dishes or salt and pepper shakers.
- Judging Process - Participants will be interviewed by the judge. Judging will be on the menu, appropriateness of table setting for the menu, the recipe card and clarity of directions, and participant's understanding of meal planning and food preparation. Written and oral comments will be given.
- Parents and leaders may assist in carrying in articles for display, but 4-H'ers are to set up their own display.
- Project is divided into junior and senior divisions.
- You will take your table home following judging, but you are asked to bring it on entry day for display during the fair. If you have items in your display that you do not feel comfortable leaving at the fair, please display what you feel will be safe. Do not include the prepared food.
