

4-H Fashion Show

Department C, Division 410, 415

Superintendents – Cathy Kloch and Cristina Kloch

General Rules

- A. Each entry must have 4" x 6" double spaced, typed (12 point font) narration beginning with the project, class number and 4-H members full name and age group on the top line. This card is due at the Extension Office with Fair Registrations. If your project is not complete enough at fair entry time to write your narrative, please submit a card with the information pre-printed on the card which will allow the superintendents to schedule your place in the fashion show. When your card is complete you can exchange it. A template is available as a link in the fairbook.
- B. Number of projects 4-H members may model:
- Beyond the Needle (formerly Decorate Your Duds), one garment
 - Clothing 1-Sewing Fundamentals (formerly Sewing For Fun & Clothing 1), two garments
 - Clothing 2-Simply Sewing (formerly Clothing 2), two garments
 - Clothing 3-A Stitch Further (formerly Sewing for You & Tailoring), three garments
 - Fiber Arts-Knitting and Crocheting, one garment
 - Shopping in Style Purchased Outfit and Written Report SF184, one outfit

NOTE: When entering classes where you can model more than one garment, use the same class number for each project. Example: Clothing 1, if you are modeling 2 garments, put the number down twice. Example: Clothing 3, if you are modeling 3 garments, put the number down 3 times.

- A top stylist from each of the project areas will be chosen. A Champion Model and a Reserve Champion Model will be named from the Senior age group, and Junior Model from the Junior age group.
- C. Each contestant should choose or make accessories to complete the outfit modeled.
- D. All garments modeled must be entered for construction judging. Upon completion of modeling, remove the garment, place on hanger, and enter with other constructed garments for judging.
- E. To receive premium money, 4-Hers are required to model in the Public Modeling. Modeling garments may be checked out of the 4-H Exhibit Building between 6:00 p.m. and 6:45 p.m., with the participants ready to model by 7:00 p.m. Garments must be returned to the exhibit building immediately after the modeling. If a 4-Her cannot participate in the public modeling, the Extension Educator or the 4-H Coordinator should be notified prior to the Revue. It will be left to the discretion of the 4-H Council if the 4-Her will receive their premium.
- F. All garments must remain on display during the county fair.
- G. The following projects qualify for State Fair modeling: Beyond the Needle (Decorate Your Duds), STEAM Clothing 2-Simply Sewing, STEAM Clothing 3-A Stitch Further, Knitted or Crocheted Clothing, Shopping in Style Purchased Outfit and Written Report SF-184.
- H. Upcycled Garments are not eligible for State Fair
- I. 4-H members must be ages 10-18, as of January 1 of current year, to be selected.
