

Fashion Show
Department C, Division 41, 415
Superintendents: Cathy Kloch and Christina Kloch

The 4-H Fashion Show is an opportunity for youth to showcase their clothing construction and consumer management skills. Construction garment exhibitors are judged on fit, construction, poise, and overall look of the garment on the individual. Shopping In Style exhibitors are judged on garment fit, the overall look of the outfit, and poise, as well as record keeping skills in the written report.

General Rules

- A. Each entry must have 4 x 6 double spaced, typed (12-point font) narration card beginning with the project, class number and 4-H members full name and age group on the top line. This card is due at the Extension Office on July 1. If your project is not complete enough at fair entry time to write your narrative, please submit a card with your name, age group project & class number on the card which will allow the superintendents to schedule your place in the fashion show. When your card is complete you can exchange it. A template is available as a link in the fairbook
- B. Garments should be age appropriate.
- C. Garments should not contain inappropriate language or images.
