4-H Summer Workshops

*Double the FUN in ’21! Choose one or both workshops. If you choose both, you are invited to bring a sack lunch as you wait for the afternoon session to begin.

4-H Plant & Planter Art

Tuesday, June 1, 10 am -noon. Ages 8-18.
Butler County Event Center, Fairgrounds.

Marilyn Schmit, master gardener and helpers. This workshop will offer planting techniques and plant care. Youth will also create their own planter complete with “plant hair”. We will have a few clear “vinegar” jugs to share for crafting this unique planter. Quantities are limited, please bring your own jug if you are able and if you would like a colored container, bring it along, gallon-sized with a handle. Limit of 15.

4-H Cup Cake Decorating

Tuesday, June 1, 1-3 pm. Ages 8-18.
Event Center, Butler County Fairgrounds.

Becky Kresha will lead 4-Hers through decorating techniques with buttercream frosting, including borders and adding confectionaries. This workshop is designed for beginners, but everyone is welcome. Limit 20.

4-H FELTING - Working with WOOL

Tuesday, June 22, 9:30 am - noon
Butler County Event Center, Fairgrounds
Ages 8-18.
Ann Dobesh, 4-H Educator. Limited to 12.

Youth will pound and work wool to produce a completed felted bowl.

Create with Cricut

$5

*$Double the FUN in ’21! Bring your lunch and stay for the afternoon Cricut workshop.

$5

Tues, June 22, 1 pm – 3 pm
Butler County Event Center, Fairgrounds

Combine technology and creative design in this workshop. 4-Hers will use the Cricut, adding decorator touches to a wooden box that will be sanded, painted, personalized and ready for entry at the County Fair.
4-H Summer Workshops

Bone Creek Paper Quilting
Wednesday, June 16, 1 pm – 3pm
Butler County Event Center, Fairgrounds

Gabrielle Come, Bone Creek Museum of Agrarian Art, will present this workshop showcasing paper quilting-incorporating elements of design in this “Quilt Designs Other than Fabric” exhibit.

There is no fee. This session will be limited to 15.

Digital Photography - by Marilyn Zeilinger. $5
Wednesday, June 23, 10 am – noon
Butler County Extension Office, Butler County Courthouse

Bring your digital camera or cell phone and be ready to take some pictures around David City. Participants will learn photography techniques, critique the pictures they shoot, examine county fair data tags, and take home their own “sandwich” mat board. This is for beginners of all ages, and as a refresher for basic skills. Limit of 8.
