

Sewing Workshops

Have you ever thought, "I wish I could sew." Or, "I know how to sew, but what can I make next?" Join Kathy Lammers in learning the tricks of the trade in sewing through mini-workshops to be held on early-out Wednesdays in 2022. Sessions will be broken into two groups: Beginning Sewing and Advanced Sewing.

Workshop Dates

School early-out Wednesdays

February 2 March 16

April 6 May TBD

at the Cedar County Extension Office

1:00–3:00 p.m. – Advanced Sewing

4:00–5:30 p.m. – Beginning Sewing

Beginning sewing sessions will begin with learning how to make pajama pants.

Supplies list to follow.

Advanced sewing sessions

will create a mini quilt
Most supplies provided.

Cedar County 4-H thanks the family of Lori Peitz for the gift of all the wonderful sewing fabric, patterns, trim, etc. Lori's mom was an avid seamstress, and we are honored to be able to share her treasures with our 4-Hers!

Sewing Service Project

Wednesday, December 29

9:00 am – 12:00 noon

at the Hartington City Auditorium

Material provided by Christ Child Society.

Create threads of love and hope by sewing baby blankets and burp clothes for layettes to be given to single mothers in need through the Christ Child Society program.

Contact the Extension Office at 402-254-6821 by December 22 to reserve your spot in these great sewing opportunities!

More information to follow with cost and supplies needed for each workshop.