

GLOSSARY

PRE-FAIR ENTRY SHEETS – There are three different Pre-Fair Sheets –

- 1) 4-H'ers are to list Department-Division-Class numbers on this Pre-Entry sheet for all static exhibits they plan to bring to fair. DUE end of day – July 3rd with the exception of Pre-Fair day entries (Sewing and Quilts) This is due on June 15th
- 2) Fashion Show entries and narratives need to be filled out and e-mailed to megan.hanefeldt@unl.edu Include in the subject line Cedar fashion show. Due June 15th.
- 3) The livestock forms changed several years ago when we combined the ID sheet and the Pre-entry into a new form The ID information required is on the bottom of the pre-entry form. All blanks MUST be filled out COMPLETELY. These are due JUNE 15 with no exceptions!

The new forms, project guidelines, and project supporting information forms can be found on the Cedar County 4-H webpage under the Cedar County Fair tab or at <https://extension.unl.edu/statewide/cedar/pre-fair-fair-resources/>.

You will be notified when entry tags for the static exhibits will be ready for pick-up.

IDENTIFICATION/OWNERSHIP AFFIDAVITS are being replaced with the new Pre-entry form – Every animal that is to be exhibited at the County Fair has to be identified by their ear tag number, tattoo number, leg band number or descriptive drawing if required and is due at the Extension Office by June 15. For some species the name of the owner of the animal if other than the 4-H member has to be identified.

SF – Stands for “State Fair” and signifies that there is County and State Fair participation.

C – Stands for “County Only” and signifies participation is only available at the County

STATE FAIR QUALIFYING CLASSES

Any item entered into a class designated SF may be selected to represent Cedar County at the State Fair. Items entered into classes designated as C are county only classes and are not eligible for the Nebraska State Fair.

GENERAL RULES

The following rules apply to all departments of the 4-H Section of the County Fair. Rules which apply specifically to a particular department will be listed under rules for that department. In case the general rules conflict with the department rules the department rules govern.

A. ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS FOR EXHIBITORS

1. An exhibitor must be a 4-H member enrolled in the project he/she is exhibiting. Exhibitors must be enrolled by June 15 in the project in which they wish to exhibit. There will be no discrimination because of race, color, sex, national or ethnic origin, religion, age, handicapped, marital status or sexual orientation.
2. Accommodations for exhibitors with special needs will be granted with the approval of superintendent, 4-H Foundation and/or Extension Educator.
3. A 4-H member must be 8 to 18 years of age inclusive on January 1 of the current year. The last year of eligibility is the calendar year the member becomes 19.
4. Any boy or girl living outside of the county but currently enrolled as a member of any Cedar County 4-H program or FFA Chapter is eligible to show at the fair. Youth may not enter the same exhibit or animal in 4-H, FFA or Open Class shows or in another county or state. All FFA members will follow the same rules and regulations as 4-H members.
5. STATE FAIR – NEW THIS YEAR -In classes where presence of the 4-H member is required for judging purposes, such as animal exhibits, judging contests, and Fashion Show, a 4-H member must be 9 by January 1 or turn 10 during the current year. The last year of eligibility is the calendar year the member becomes 19. For classes where presence of the 4-H member is not required, the exhibitor must be 8 as of January 1 or 9 years during the current year.

B. PROCEDURE FOR MAKING ENTRIES

1. All 4-H entries, pre-entries and identification affidavits must be made on appropriate forms provided by the Extension Office by specific deadlines.
2. Entries made by special needs individuals may have a note attached, written by the parent or leader explaining the child's handicap(s) for the judge's information and consideration. Any entry involving special needs individuals should be adapted to their special circumstances by the Extension Staff and/or the superintendent.

C. ENTRY DEADLINE

1. ANIMALS – All Large and Small Animal Project exhibits for the County Fair need to be pre-entered on the appropriate Pre-Fair Entry Sheet and submitted to the Extension Office by June 15 or by the date designated in the 4-H newsletter. Late entries will not be considered for top awards.
2. STATIC – Entries will need to be pre-registered on the static form.

D. IDENTIFICATION

An animal (beef, sheep, swine, meat goat, horse, dairy, dairy goat, or rabbit) may be identified in 4-H, in only one county.

An animal (beef, sheep, swine, meat goat, dairy, dairy goat, rabbit, poultry, dog or cat) cannot be shown in more than one county fair. (Taken from the Animal Exhibitor Handbook) Clover kids can not show another 4-H member's animal. 4-H member must be able to prove ownership and provide and care for animals.

E. ENTRY FEES – There are no entry fees for the County Fair.

F. NUMBER OF ENTRIES – 4-H members may exhibit one (1) entry per class unless otherwise noted. No entry can compete in more than one class. There must be three or more entries to have a show, this is determined by the executive committee.

- G. PROJECT ENROLLMENT – Individuals will be permitted to enter only those items corresponding with the projects carried during the current year. Entries are allowed in only one unit/level of competition. Those enrolled in a Middle or Advanced unit may not exhibit in a less advanced unit.
1. 4-H PROJECTS – Items entered for competition in previous years are not eligible for competition again unless otherwise noted.
 2. SCHOOL PROJECTS – Articles made in school classes are eligible for exhibit if the individual has carried a related 4-H project and completed the necessary records during the current 4-H year justifying the construction of the item(s).
- H. EXHIBIT SUPPORT INFORMATION – Exhibits may require supporting information in order for the judge to know how the exhibit was completed. Check the appropriate area in the Fair Book to see if that applies to your exhibit. If you feel that the judge could benefit from an explanation of your project or the techniques involved include an information sheet with the project.
- I. SCORING – score sheets for 4-H building exhibits can be found on the web and are available from the Extension Office.
- J. EXHIBITS RELEASED – The release times for the County Fair will be listed on the County Fair schedule. No exhibitor is allowed to remove any article or animal on exhibition until the scheduled time. Additionally to remove animal(s) before the scheduled time the Animal Dismissal Form must be completed for each animal that is removed and approved. An example of this form is located in the back of this book. All articles and animals must remain in the assigned location or area during the fair. See General Livestock Rules Page 5, Item D.
- K. PROTEST COMMITTEE
1. The superintendents of each division at the County Fair have the authority to make the appropriate decisions based on the rules and regulations of the County Fair.
 2. The executive committee of the 4-H Council and designated members of the Ag Society will serve as the Protest and Appeals Committee. They will meet when needed to act upon any protest or appeals.
 - a. All protests or appeals must be submitted in writing and signed. Written protests or appeals must be submitted to the County Extension Educator. The staff person will convene the committee for their deliberation.
 - b. Written protests or appeals must include the following:
 - 1) Names of persons involved
 - 2) Nature of concerns
 - 3) Situation and documentation
 - 4) Recommendations for correction
 - 5) Specific action, rule, etc. in question
 - 6) Additional persons committee may contact for further clarification
 - 7) Procedures and/or steps carried out by person involved prior to submission of the protest to the Extension Educator.
 - c. The committee will review the written protest. They may discuss the situation with anyone they feel has knowledge of the situation. The committee's recommendation or decision will be communicated both verbally and in writing to the group or individuals affected. The committee will recommend appropriate action to the Extension Staff in writing prior to communicating with the affected group or individual.
 - d. In cases of protest the exhibitor may be allowed to show pending the results of the committee's decision. Results of this showing may be subject to change based on the outcome of the protest process.
 - e. The committee reserves the right to withhold premium and/or award. The exhibitor may be excluded from the show if action warrants.
 - f. The appeals process is limited to the 4-H exhibitor, parent and/or volunteer leader.
- Protests will not be accepted after the exhibit is released from the County Fair. Protest related to judges' integrity, decisions, placing and/or other evaluations will not be accepted.
- L. DISCLAIMER OF RESPONSIBILITY AT COUNTY FAIR
1. EXHIBITS – 4-H exhibits at County Fair are entered and displayed at the risk of the 4-H member. The University of Nebraska Extension 4-H Youth Development, in cooperation with the County Ag Society accepts exhibits and will exercise due care to protect them. However, 4-H and the County Ag Society cannot accept responsibility for loss or damage that may occur to exhibits or exhibitors. 4-H members who have exhibits of great sentimental and/or monetary value should carefully consider whether such exhibits should be exposed to the hazards of the fair.
 2. PATRONS/PARTICIPANTS – While the greatest possible care will be exercised by the County Ag Society to protect patrons/participants of the County Fair, each individual will be held personally responsible for any injury, accident and/or loss.
 3. SUBSTANCE ABUSE – Use of possession of tobacco, alcoholic beverages or drugs (except for medical purposes) by any exhibitor who is participating in 4-H at the County Fair will result in immediate disqualification of that exhibitor's entry.
- M. INSURANCE – Accident insurance (medical) is carried on 4-H members in the Cedar 4-H program. A report of all accidents must be made to the 4-H Office on the Fairgrounds or the Extension Office at the Courthouse within 24 hours after the accident. Your claim must be filed with the Extension Office within 10 days after the accident.
- N. RIBBONS AND PREMIUMS AWARDED – In the 4-H, exhibits are judged according to research-based standards that indicate level of performance or quality of work. Purple ribbons designate an exhibit of superior quality that has met and exceeded all of the standards. Blue ribbons denote an above average exhibit that has almost all of the standards in a way that surpasses the norm. Red ribbons indicate average quality and indicate that the exhibit has met the majority of standards in such a way that the benchmark was reached, but not exceeded. White ribbons indicate that the exhibit has not met the majority of the standards. Clover Kid ribbons denote participation. A participation ribbon is recognition of the 4-H exhibit's presence at the fair. Exhibits must be either purple or blue quality to be named champion or reserve champion and/or qualify for related special awards. Must have 3 or more exhibitors to award some of the Special awards. Special awards include trophies, plaques, medals, cash or gifts. Premiums are Purple $ 3.00, Blue $ 2.00, Red, White or Participation $ 1.00 unless noted differently.
