The Farm Service Agency (FSA) makes loans to youth to establish and operate agricultural income-producing projects in connection with 4-H clubs, FFA and other agricultural groups. Projects must be planned and operated with the help of the organization advisor, produce sufficient income to repay the loan and provide the youth with practical business and educational experience. The maximum loan amount is $5,000. Youth must be between 10-20 years of age. Additional information about youth loans can be found at <https://www.fsa.usda.gov/programs-and-services/farm-loan-programs/youth-loans/index>.

Youth Crop Scouting Competition - Connecting Youth with Crops. Youth interested in crops can learn about crop growth & development and basic crop scouting principles. Ask a local agronomist to assist. This contest will be held near Mead, Nebraska on August 7. Ten teams (three to five participants per team) of junior high and high school students (5-12th graders) are invited to participate. An adult team leader must accompany each team of students. Team leaders could be FFA advisors, crop consultants, extension staff, coop employees, etc. Monetary prizes for the top three teams. More information about the crop scouting competition and instructions on how to register a team are available online at cropwatch.unl.edu/youth. Register at: <https://go.unl.edu/cropscoutingreg> Teams must be registered by July 15.

Dates and information for 4-H camps can be found at <https://4h.unl.edu/camps-register>. A few scholarships are available (must apply before you register for the camp). The application can be completed at <https://4h.unl.edu/campscholarship>
