Please write a fashion commentary of your garment as you would like it given at the Public Fashion Show. To help the narrator, please make it complete, but brief. Examples are given in the sheet "Writing A Fashion Commentary." You may model ONLY ONE OUTFIT in the evening Public Fashion Show, but as many garments as there are 4-H project class numbers before the judge. The narration must be written and received by June 16th. NO EXCEPTIONS!

4-H FASHION SHOW EVALUATION

In judging fashion show entries, the judge is concerned with (1) the appearance of the garment and (2) the total effect of the garment on the model. The following criteria and values are a guide for both you and the judge in evaluating your fashion show exhibit:

	Purple	Blue	Red	White	COMMENTS
INDIVIDUAL (20%) - wears the garment with confidence and ease; well groomed; poised; smiles; looks at audience; shows off the outfit in a pleasing way.
ACCESSORIES (10%) - create total finished look, coordinate well, are appropriate.
SELECTION (25%) - age appropriate; style, fabric and color are becoming to the person; compatibility of fabric, notions and pattern; suited for intended use; enhance the figure.
CREATIVITY (15%) - shows an attractive, appealing and imaginative use of color, texture, pattern and style; follows the principles of good design; distinctive.
CONSTRUCTION (15%) - techniques that are appropriate, inconspicuous, functional, durable, pleasing, giving a well-made appearance to the garment; clean, neat, well pressed.
FIT (15%) - enough wearing ease for comfort, movement, smooth fit; absence of wrinkles or sags where they do not belong; design lines fall attractively, grain of the fabric is in alignment.
