Patterns for purpose is a clinic designed around the patterns that all the top horseman use when training their horses. What we will be doing is to learn the pattern, study why we do the pattern, what results are we looking for when doing the pattern and what is my horses overall response when doing the pattern. Does he gain confidence? Does he become fearful? Does he get more wound up or does he relax and begin to flow with ease in the pattern? Knowing what each pattern helps you accomplish will further the trust and leadership between you and your horse.
