

ServSafe®: Food Safety Program

What is ServSafe®?

ServSafe® is the food service industry's premier food safety training and certification course. It is recognized by more federal, state and local health jurisdictions than any other food safety training program in the United States.

Who should attend?

The ServSafe® course is recommended for all types of food service managers, both commercial and non-commercial.

Why attend?

This is a great opportunity to obtain your National Certification and update your skills in food-borne illness prevention.

ServSafe® certification demonstrates to your customers that you are committed to ensuring their health and serving safe food.

Continuing education credit is available for dietitians, diet technicians, and dietary managers.

Instructors:

- Cindy Brison, M.S., R.D., Nebraska Extension Educator, Douglas-Sarpy Counties.
- Jody Green, PhD., Nebraska Extension Educator, Douglas-Sarpy Counties.
- Nancy Urbanec, Nebraska Extension Associate, Douglas-Sarpy Counties.
- Sarah Pistillo, Environmental Health Specialist II, Douglas County Health Department.
