

Our mission...

To provide high-quality continuing education to farmers and ranchers in a rapidly changing global agricultural environment. Furthermore, the Farmers and Ranchers College will provide the tools necessary so that agricultural producers will be able to respond positively to these changes using a profitable decision-making process.

Our goals...

- ❖ Work closely with agribusiness and agriculture industry representatives.
- ❖ Work closely with the University of Nebraska Extension Division and the Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources.
- ❖ Work closely with other institutions of higher education.
- ❖ Work closely with agricultural commodity organizations.
- ❖ Provide interesting, informative and timely topics in a dynamic format.
