

DEPARTMENT G - POULTRY

All 4-H'ers showing Poultry MUST have their Youth for Quality Care of Animals (YOCA) certification. Poultry exhibitors MUST wear official county 4-H T-shirt. Exhibitors are encouraged to wear long sleeve shirt or tube socks under the county 4-H T-shirt for safety but NOT mandatory.

A 4-H'er is limited to 10 bird entries per exhibitor. An individual bird may NOT be shown in more than one class.

All poultry will be judged according to breed standards listed in the American Standard of Perfection. The minimum weights for exhibition birds will be as stated in the American Standard of Perfection and the Bantam Standard. The minimum weights for production birds will be 3 lbs for females and 4 lbs for males of light breeds and 4 lbs for females and 5 lbs for males of heavy breeds. Young means current year hatch. A pen of broilers shall consist of three male or three female birds 6-9 weeks of age, a pen of hybrids, crossbred or purebred egg production birds shall consist of 3 sexually mature females. Pens of broilers or egg production females will be judged for production qualities only and need NOT necessarily conform to breed standards. The rules for standard size chickens apply equally to bantams, waterfowl and turkey where applicable. All poultry exhibited MUST be grown in a 4-H'er's project. All poultry exhibited MUST be grown in a 4-H'er's project. Proper paperwork is required for exhibiting game birds.

Basis for judging showmanship is based on grooming and training of the bird and the appearance and behavior of the exhibitor. The exhibitor MUST vocally explain the steps in their routine and the merit of the bird, primarily showmanship is the skill of the exhibitor in presenting and explaining the bird before the judge. Showmanship is required in order to show a species of any animal.

Each exhibitor MUST present a brief description of their project or animal with a picture of the exhibitor and poultry. The size of the display should be NO larger than 10"x12" and be available in some close location or attached to the cage in some manner. This is only needed for showmanship animal.
