Committee Reports
County Fairboard Report
Frontier County Fair- waiting to see. For now same as normal. Wanting to keep the kids 4H part. Checking COVID guidelines. Not wanting Virtual livestock shows but if have to have use same person doing video at same location.
Eustis Fair & Corn Show- planning fair now. Waiting for governor recommendations. Maybe have 1 day show if needed.

Extension Educator- Kathy- NO face to face until June 15. We need a plan with several options for 2020 county fairs. 2020 county Fair book only few hard copies printed & online county webpage- club leaders & Independent families will get hard copy, others need to request by May 15; YQCA on line-due June 1st; All livestock Id sheets/photos due June 1st; summer 4-H intern/ Peggy's 4-H office helper- Camryn Evans, Shooting sports container set in place on fairgrounds April 28.

Old Business
A. Fundraising -West Central Youth Animal Science Youth Field Day lunch- May 28 was cancelled & Medicine Valley Field Day concession stand-May 15 was cancelled. All cancelled due to COVID19. Should be ok for this year according to council budget.
B. County Speech/Presentation Contest will be Virtual on June 8. Moved from April to June. Everyone is invited to watch participants on zoom on June 8. Participants are emailing video to Kathy. Participants with purple ribbons can go to state in June. The top 3 in each category receive cash prizes from 4H Council.

C. There will be some Summer Programs/Workshops. Agronomy Field Day will be cancelled.
D. Other unfinished business -none

New Business

A. Final county 4-H enrollment- 190 youth
B. Shooting Sports Summer plans- enrolled 57 archery, 33 BB Gun, 26 shotgun, 25 small bore rifle. Waiting to start practice when can have face to face events.
C. County Fair options if no face to face or limited crowd or etc (due to CDC and/or public Health mandate) Much discussion took place. Some ideas were:
   All 4H contests or none, static exhibits no interview judging- submit written report with exhibits, 1 day livestock shows with ribbons and trophies as usual, move photography and clothing to fair (If can't be face to face by July 10), Youth members do not want virtual exhibits.
   Option A- normal fair
   Option B- Space events out
   Option- No fair at all

Final Statement for 4H newsletter and public was written.
"As of May 18, the 2020 Frontier County Fair and 2020 Eustis Fair & Corn Show will have normal "in person" fairs. We will let you know more after the June 17th 4H Council/Fair Board-Ag Society meeting" Note: After the meeting Kathy added " in-person" to the statement.

D. Other new business -none
