

HORSE DIVISION

IDENTIFICATION: All 4-H horses must be identified by description on the 4-H Horse ID sheet (F2-97-77) as to color, markings, brands, etc., or colored photo. Be detailed with markings and color and use registered names (if appropriate). There is no limit on the number of horses identified by each 4-H member. ID forms are due in the Extension Office by June 15. Horses not identified by June 15 will not be allowed to show.

Regulations, dress code and procedures will be those set forth in the “Nebraska 4-H Horse Show and Judging Guide” available from the extension office or UNL Marketplace.

WESTERN DRESS CODE:

- A western hat must be worn and should stay on during the performance. Hats are optional only in barrel racing and pole bending. Hat must stay on in barrel racing and pole bending if rider enters the arena wearing hat (two-second fine for losing hat). In speed events, if hats are not worn, a plain white or green headband may be worn for rider's hair control if band is 3 inches or less in width. Feathers, if present, may not protrude beyond the outer edge of the brim nor above the top of the crown.
- Shirts and blouses must be all white, including buttons, thread, etc., with convertible collars (one that is meant to be folded at the seam line and may or may not be buttoned at the base of neck). Tuxedo, turtleneck or other stand-up collars are not permitted. National, country, or club emblems, medals, etc., are not permitted at county, or state shows. No rhinestones, silver collar tips or similar embellishments on blouses are permitted. Sheer, see-through blouses are inappropriate and not permitted. Sleeveless shirts and blouses are not permitted. Long sleeves are recommended, although short sleeves are permitted. Rain or cold weather may alter dress code when approved by the horse superintendents.
- Dark blue denim jeans must be worn, and a belt is recommended. Heavy contrasting threading and fringes are not permitted. Minimal white or tan thread on the rear pockets is permitted. No rhinestones, silver studs, or similar embellishments are prohibited.
- Color of hat, gloves, boots, chaps, etc., is optional.
- Hard-soled shoes or cowboy boots are considered safe and appropriate. Boots with waffle-type tread greater than or equal to 1/8" will not be allowed in riding classes.
- Spurs are permissible but must be dull and if roweled must be free moving.
- A 4-H arm band is required in county and state 4-H horse shows. Arm band is to be worn on the left arm above the elbow. Failure to wear armband will result in receiving a white ribbon.
- Optional: Protective head gear; chaps in Reining, Western Riding and Trail; gloves in any class; tie or scarf.
- Prohibited: Ball caps or hats other than western; medals, emblems, large feathers, etc., on hats; spurs are not to be worn in Showmanship and Halter classes. Decisions will be at the discretion of show management.
- Note: Additional optional and prohibited attire and/or equipment pertaining to specific classes are noted in the rules for that class. (4-H373, 4-H Horse Show and Judging Guide)

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS: NO health certificates are needed prior to showing at the fair. It should be brought to the attention of the horse superintendents as soon as possible of any potentially ill horses. There may be an option for the veterinarian to inspect potentially ill horses if requested by the superintendents the day of the show.

NUMBER OF ENTRIES PER EXHIBITOR:

- Each exhibitor may enter as many events as he wishes. However, a horse may be entered in each event only once. The novice, junior and senior division of each event will be considered a single event.
- The horse that is shown in 4-H at the state level may only be shown in 4-H at the county fair during the same year. The following year the horse may be used in either 4-H or FFA.
- A horse exhibited in a 4-H event cannot be exhibited in any FFA events. Horses not used in 4-H at the county or state shows may be used to exhibit at the FFA county show.

AGE OF HORSE: The age of a horse is determined on the calendar year starting January 1 of the year foaled. For example, a horse foaled anytime in 2000 was considered to be one year old on January 1, 2001, and two years old on January 1, 2002.

A stallion may be exhibited during the year he is foaled and not the year after he is foaled. However, any unruly animals are to be dismissed from the showing immediately by the superintendent.

MEASURING HORSES: All horses entered in the pleasure pony and pony halter classes, need to be at the fairgrounds by 8:00 am the day of the Horse Show to be measured.

WHO IS ALLOWED TO EXHIBIT: Only 4-H project owners may exhibit their animals unless excused by the Superintendent and Extension Educator. Excuses, when granted, are only for military service, sickness or when the owner has a conflict with another county fair activity. If the 4-Her has several 4-H fair activities scheduled at the same time, the show WILL NOT be held up for the exhibitor.

CLASS SIZE: Class sizes may be changed at the horse superintendent's discretion. All classes will take place in the main arena.

Horses are not to be ridden in the livestock housing and livestock exhibit areas. 4-H members caught riding horses in the livestock area will forfeit premiums won in the 4-H Horse Show.

RAIN DATE: Should the 4-H Horse Show be "rained out" or delayed for some unavoidable reason, the remaining events of the show will be rescheduled to begin at 9:00 am of the next immediate Saturday after fair. If conditions on the rescheduled date are still such that the show cannot be concluded it shall not be rescheduled.

HALTER CLASSES

PREMIUMS: Purple, $5.00; Blue, $4.00; Red, $3.00; and White, $2.00

TROPHIES: Refer to Knox County Trophy and Award List

The exhibitor may show as many halter horses as they wish but limited to 2 horses in each halter class. All horses shall be shown together according to age, regardless of breed. All ponies will show in one class, regardless of age or breed.

PERFORMANCE EVENTS

PREMIUMS: Purple, $5.00; Blue, $4.00; Red, $3.00; White, $2.00

A trophy will be presented to first place in each senior, junior and novice event. THE TROPHY WINNER MUST HAVE RECEIVED A PURPLE RIBBON. An individual is allowed to exhibit in only ONE western pleasure class, either Pleasure Pony or Western Pleasure Horse. The reining patterns and trail class obstacles will be determined early and listed in the 4-H newsletter prior to the fair.

WALK-TROT CLASS

Novice members are eligible for the Walk-Trot Pleasure Class and Walk-Trot Horsemanship Class. This class is to be judged on the execution of a walk and jog/trot by the pleasure horse and is intended for riders who are not yet comfortable at exhibiting at the lope or canter. If the rider participates in the Walk-Trot Pleasure Class or the Walk-Trot Horsemanship Class, the rider is NOT eligible to enter any other Ranch Pleasure, Western Pleasure, or Western Horsemanship class, even if they have another horse.

RANCH PLEASURE CLASS

Seniors, Juniors and Novices are eligible for the Ranch Pleasure Class. Exhibitors may participate in both a Western Pleasure class and Ranch Pleasure class, but with different horses. No horse may enter a Western Pleasure and Ranch Pleasure at the same show regardless of divisions. The purpose of the Ranch Pleasure class is to measure the ability of the horse to be a pleasure to ride while being used as a means of conveyance from one ranch task to another and should reflect the versatility, attitude, and movement of a working horse.

RANCH RIDING CLASS

Seniors, Juniors, and Novices are eligible for the Ranch Riding Class. Exhibitors may participate in both a Western Pleasure class and Ranch Riding class, but with different horses. No horse may enter a Western Pleasure and Ranch Riding at the same show regardless of divisions. A Ranch Riding horse should reflect the versatility, attitude, and movement of a working horse. The horse's performance should simulate a horse riding outside the confines of an arena and that of a working ranch horse. This class should show the horse's ability to work at a forward, working speed while under control by the rider.

The same horse may be ridden in a Ranch Pleasure and Ranch Riding class, but not in a Western Pleasure Class. An individual may enter both Western Pleasure and Ranch Pleasure, but they must ride a different horse for each class.

GOAT TYING CLASS

- This event is open to all 4-H members.
- There is a required number of participants to hold this class. That number will be announced on the pre-entry form.
- A charge will be collected with pre-entry.
- Starting line will be 100 feet from stake.
- The goat should be tied to a stake with a rope ten feet in length.
- There is no horse allowed for Novice Division. 4-H'ers are on foot and the starting line may change.
- Juniors and seniors must ride a horse. The 4-H'er must be mounted on a horse and ride from the starting line to the goat, dismount, catch the goat, throw, and tie any three legs together and signal that their tie is complete by rising their hands in the air. The exhibitor then must step back away from the goat.
- If the goat is down on its knees when the 4-H'er reaches it, the goat must be let up or lifted high enough to give the opportunity to regain its feet. Then the contestant may throw and tie the goat.
- Tie at least three legs together with a leather thong, pigging string, or rope and then move back three (3) feet away from the goat.
- To qualify as a legal tie, there will be at least one complete wrap around at least three legs, and half hitch or hooley.
- Legs must remain crossed and secure for 6 seconds after tying.
- Time will start when the horse's nose crosses the starting line and time will stop when 4-H'er signals the completion of the tie.
- An award will be presented to the top purple ribbon in each senior, junior and novice division. The award winner must have received a purple ribbon.

PUBLIC SPEAKING

PREPARED SPEECH:

By participating in the 4-H Prepared Speech, 4-H members will have the opportunity to write and prepare a speech on a topic related to their 4-H experience. The judge will view the speech and evaluate based on the subject, organization, and delivery of the speech. The handout, A Guide To Making Great 4-H Speeches, is available on how to develop speeches at <https://extension.unl.edu/statewide/knox/knox-county-4-h-public-speaking-contest/>.

TROPHIES: Refer to the Knox County Trophy and Award List

Awards: The first-place winner in each division is eligible for a $50.00 scholarship for a 4-H Camp of their choice, sponsored by the Knox County 4-H Council.

- A speech is an individual event only.
- Ages are as of January 1 of the current year.
- Junior, Intermediate and Senior presenters must have an original speech and include 4-H as the major component of the speech.
- 4-H members may not use an old speech written by a sibling, another 4-H member, or anyone else.
- Acknowledge the source of information used in the speech. For example, an article from a magazine may be used for reference but should not be quoted directly unless you tell the audience your source.
- Note cards are acceptable if used properly at the county level - speeches should not be read.
- Use of visual aids and props are not allowed.
- Dress appropriately. Do not wear costumes or special effect clothing.
