

Lambing supplies

The following table lists supplies you should have on hand for lambing.

Lambing supplies
Rubber gloves, protective sleeves or latex gloves	For assisting with difficult births and handling newborns
OB lubrication	For assisting with difficult births
Nylon rope, snare, or leg puller	For assisting with difficult births
Disinfectant	For assisting with difficult births
Bearing retainer, ewe spoon, or prolapse harness	For holding vaginal prolapse in
Heat lamp or warming box	For warming chilled lambs
Various antibiotics	To give to ewes whose births you assist
Needles and syringes	For giving shots
Thermometer	For diagnosing problems
Gentle iodine, betadine, or chlorhexadine	For dipping navel cords
Esophageal feeding tube	For feeding lambs
Frozen colostrum	For feeding lambs
Colostrum supplement	To supplement colostrum
Lamb milk replacer	For feeding orphan lambs
Lamb nipples (teats)	For hand feeding orphan lambs
Propylene glycol	For treating pregnancy toxemia
Calcium borogluconate	For treating milk fever
50% dextrose	For weak lambs
Oral dosing syringe	For giving oral medications
OB S-curved needle	For suturing
Ear tags and an applicator	For identifying lambs
Docking and castrating equipment	For docking and castrating
Hanging scale	For weighing feed and lambs
Weigh sling	To weigh newborn lambs
Pocket record keeping book	For recording lambing data