

July 1, 2024

Dear Members,

Perkins-Chase County Clothing Judging Day will be July 10 in Imperial at the Imperial Methodist Church.

*Projects Judged: STEAM CLOTHING 1, 2, 3, Beyond the Needle, Knitting, Crochet, Weaving, Quilt Quest (Including Barn Quilt, Wearable Art, Etc.), Fashion Show, Shopping in Style and Shopping in Style Fashion Show.

Fashion Show Instructions

You must participate in the public style show to be eligible to receive your ribbon and premium.

Narrations are due to the Extension Office Monday, July 8.

Narrations will be read exactly as they are submitted.

SHOPPING IN STYLE

If you choose to model your SHOPPING IN STYLE project, the Shopping in Style Written Report with Narration is mandatory. Reports will be judged July 10.

Clothing Construction Guidelines and Instructions

READ YOUR FAIRBOOK FOR ALL EXHIBITS—MAKE SURE YOU INCLUDE EVERYTHING THAT IS REQUIRED FOR YOUR PROJECT!!!

Clothing Labels

All clothing exhibits must have identification labels on each piece of the project. The labels must have the following information: County, Exhibitor name and age, project name and class number and the number of years enrolled in the project. Labels help avoid mix-ups and lost items. Attach labels to the back neckline or back waistband of the garment with safety pins.

The schedule for the day is as follows:

Imperial Methodist Church, 420 Holland St, Imperial

9:00 a.m. - Registration and preparation time

9:30 a.m. - Style Revue and Construction Judging begins

After construction judging, exhibitors will leave their items with Extension Staff (they will attach entry tags and ribbons). ALL judged items will be put on display in the Exhibit Hall.
