

4-H Council Meeting Minutes March 20, 2022

Present: Eric Stehlik, Theresa Vernon, Tanya Brown, Laura Sysel, Deb Schwisow, Stacie and Keltyn Kirchoff, Cindy Brandt

With the absence of the president and vice president, Theresa Vernon offered to run the meeting. The 4-H Council meeting was called to order by Theresa Vernon and pledges were recited.

The minutes of the January 9th, 2022 meeting were read with two corrections made because of decisions that occurred after the January meeting. 1) Entertainment for the county fair will be Shenandoah rather than Jo Dee Messina. 2) Renegade Camp scholarships will be $50 rather than $40. Motion to approve the minutes made by Cindy Brandt and second by Tanya Brown, motion passed.

There was not treasurer's report given.

Old Business:

- 1) 4-H Recognition and Recruitment review: Approximately 90 people attended, quite a few young families. It was felt the recruitment portion of the event was not as successful as hoped. Expenses related to the event were $287.96 for the taco bar supplies and $238.61 for awards. A motion was made by Deb S and seconded by Cindy Brandt to approve payment of these expenses; motion passed.
- 2) Fair Banners: Eric is working with Adrienne on award banners; area banners are still being designed, the Ag Society will split the cost 50/50.
- 3) Fair Schedule: Kids Clover Showmanship for small animals Friday at 5:00pm Tanya Brown; Kids Clover Showmanship for large animals Friday at 7:00 are Deb S and family and Cindy Brandt; Ice Cream social on Thursday after the fashion review Tanya Brown and Laura Sysel volunteered to help.
- 4) Volunteer Appreciation: The clear bags have been ruled out as they have to be ordered by the 100 and may not be appreciated by all. Suggestions include key chain or multitool combo. Eric will research these.

Our next meeting will be Thursday July 28, 2022 at 7:00pm

Deb Schwisow made a motion to adjourn the meeting, meeting adjourn.

Those without graduating seniors stayed to review scholarship applications.
