2024 Winners Unlimited Livestock Judging Camp

Session

Camp will be conducted in early June. The following are the dates for the camp in 2024.

Overnight Camp ($300) June 5-7

Housing and Meals

The University of Nebraska residence halls (Masengale Hall) located on East Campus will house students for the duration of the camp. Participants will be provided sheets, bedspread (or blanket), pillow, pillowcase, as well as daily towel exchange. If any other items are needed, they are to be brought by the student. Rooms for students will be double occupancy, thus students will be assigned a roommate. All participants are responsible for their residence hall key and all damages incurred. All meals will be eaten in or around the Animal Science building and will be catered in by outside establishments. Students are more than welcome to bring their own snacks and drinks for use throughout the day, or use the campus vending machines.

Parents

Please review the registration form and make sure all information is filled out correctly. Camp registration will be confirmed via email, so please provide one if possible. Otherwise, confirmation will be mailed. Any parents, volunteers, extension staff, or FFA advisors involved with coaching a team are more than welcome to participate and benefit from camp as well. If you are interested, please indicate so on the registration form.

Also, carefully read and fill-out the attached forms required by UNL for your child to participate in the camp. All forms need to be mailed back with registration.

Please fill out the registration form and mail it with payment (made payable to UNL Livestock Judging) to:

Parent/Guardian Consent

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln has implemented a Youth Activity Safety Policy to provide a safe environment for youths participating in UNL sponsored activities, clinics or conferences. All UNL activities will comply with UNL's Youth Activities Safety Guidelines.

Our policy includes safe interaction guidelines as well as background and sex registry checks for Activity Workers. This policy will help to protect participating youths from potential misconduct incidents and help provide a safe, educational and enjoyable activity/program experience.

Disciplinary Action

Student conduct is paramount while attending the camp. Students will be expected to conduct themselves in a professional, mature manner. Curfew times (11:00 p.m.) in the dorms are strict and required to be followed, as well as any other instructions from camp volunteers and/or University Housing staff. The activity directors of University-sponsored activities, clinics and conferences reserve the right to immediately dismiss any youth from the activity, clinic or conference who is found to have violated behavioral expectations. Dismissed youth will be sent home at their expense and will be responsible for all other expenses associated with their dismissal. Parent(s)/guardian(s) will be immediately notified of the youth's dismissal.
