

4-H Council Minutes

07/01/24

Ella Kossow

President Sabryn called the July 1st, meeting to order at 6:30 p.m. at the Extension Office. There were no additions to the agenda and the pledges were said.

Secretary's Report:

Members present: Julie Phillips, Sabryn Maloy, Courtney Kossow, Ella Kossow, Jamie Nelson, Braeden Dey, Kathryn Naber, Kyle Riley, Corey Payne, Stacy Blecha, Cissanie Krohe

Extension Staff Present: Ann Dobesh, Brittney Emerson

The Secretary's Minutes were looked over and no corrections were made. Jamie motioned to approve the minutes and Julie seconded. For correspondence: a thank you letter from Hank Hughes for the 4-H Council scholarship he received.

Treasurer's Report:

The budget was reviewed, Corey motioned to approve it, and Julie seconded. The council had no request for funds or approval of bills. We did however have a scholarship request. Abigail Brinkmeyer, a recipient of a 4-H Council scholarship, emailed to ask if she could use her scholarship not for tuition but to go on a trip to New York through her college. The trip is related to her Major: broadcasting and journalism. Julie motioned to approve the request and Ella seconded.

Old Business:

The Midwest Jackpot review included discussions about changing class order and combining some classes to increase the show's flow

New Business:

Council members are needed at the county fair at County Fair Clean-up on July 31st and at the 4-H Foundation Hamburger Feed on Friday, August 9th. Elections for the 4-H Council are coming up soon so the ballot was looked over. Council members whose terms are ending are Youth: Braeden Dey, Ella Kossow, Corey Payne, and Kathryn Naber (Kathryn and Corey can run again this year), Adult: Sabyrn Maloy, Julie Philips, Pat Vrbka, and Jamie Nelson.

Extra:

The county fair is coming up soon so the plans for the club contest need to be finalized. The council discussed multiple different ways to execute a scavenger hunt-type contest. We decided to use an app called Goosechase. This will come with a $325 fee to pay for the app. Courtney made a motion to pay the fee and use the app, and Kathryn seconded.

Kathryn made a motion to adjourn the meeting and Stacey seconded. The next meeting is Monday, September 9th at 6:30 p.m.
