Extension Master Gardener Classes Start January 14.

Are you yearning for spring and the growing season? Beat the winter doldrums by attending the Nebraska Extension Master Gardener classes, starting Thursday, January 14 at the Hitchcock County Courthouse meeting room in Trenton, Nebraska.

Gardening enthusiasts can participate by attending individual classes at $10 per class. Participants can enjoy attending the classes of their choice to increase their personal horticultural knowledge. Here is a list of the class dates and topics:

- January 14 – Plant Material that Work in Western Nebraska
- January 21 – Ornamental Grasses for Western Nebraska Landscapes
- January 28 – Ornamental Landscape Plant Maintenance
- February 2 - Selection and Care of Evergreen Trees and Shrubs
- February 9 - Putting Perennial Landscape Plants to Work
- February 16 – Basic Botany and Plant Identification
- February 23 - Weed Identification and Control
- February 25 - Choosing Healthy Plants from Box Stores and Retail Centers
- March 1  - Polarizing Yard and Garden Issues
- March 8  - Efficient Landscape Irrigation
- March 22 - Growing Herbs